PATROL GUIDE

Section Command Operations		Procedure No: 212-11
INVESTIGATIVE ENCOUNTERS: REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION, COMMON LAW RIGHT OF INQUIRY AND LEVEL 3 STOPS
DATE ISSUED: 06/27/16	DATE EFFECTIVE: 06/27/16	REVISION NUMBER:	PAGE: 1 of 12

PURPOSE

To describe the types of encounters a uniformed member of the service may initiate with a member of the public during the course of his or her official duties, the level of knowledge required for each type of encounter, the scope of a police officer's authority for each type of encounter, the measures that are permissible to protect uniformed members of the service from injury while engaged in such encounters, and the procedures to be followed by a member of the service during these encounters.

SCOPE

In accordance with their oath to uphold the law, uniformed members of the service must conduct investigative encounters in a lawful and respectful manner; however, nothing in this section is intended to deter an officer from initiating appropriate inquiries and investigative encounters, including stops, or using any lawful and appropriate tactics to ensure the officer's safety during such investigative encounters. Moreover, this procedure should not be interpreted to discourage an officer from engaging in voluntary consensual conversations with members of the public. Members of the service are encouraged to develop positive relationships in the communities they serve. Such positive interactions with the community foster trust and understanding that will in turn enhance public safety and officer safety.

The law is not new

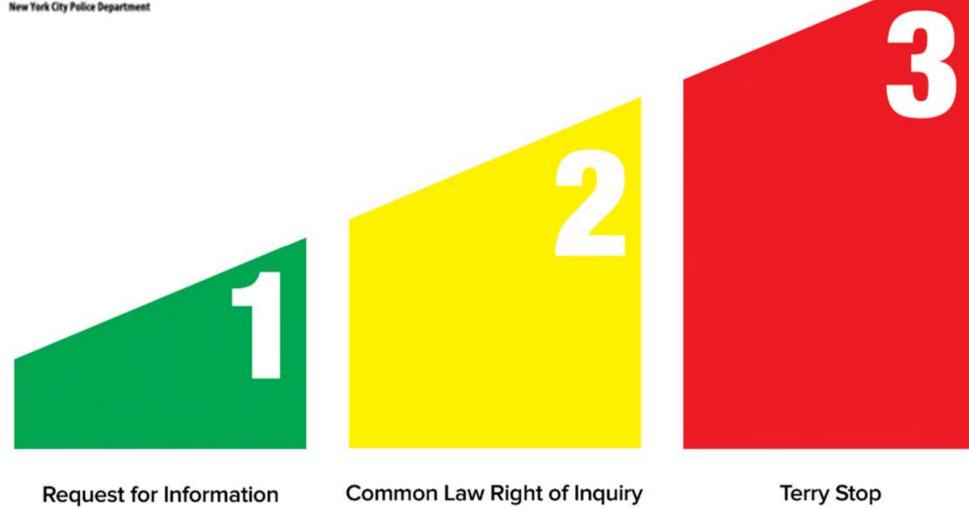

Minor or inadvertent mistakes in documentation or isolated cases of erroneous but good-faith stops or frisks by members of the service should ordinarily be addressed through instruction and training. In most instances, instruction and training should be accomplished at the command level. The application of the law in this area can be complicated, and investigative encounters are fluid situations in which one event or observation can alter the level of suspicion or danger. A single erroneous judgment will not generally warrant referral to the Legal Bureau for retraining. However, members of the service who evince a lack of comprehension of the core concepts of the law governing this procedure should be referred to the Legal Bureau.

Protective Measures at Level 12

Example: a male passes by two other men and continues to stare at them with a menacing, angry expression. You approach and ask him if there is a problem with those men. The male glares at you and begins to reach for his back pants pocket.

The use of the tool depends on a reasonable concern that your safety may be in jeopardy.

At Level 1, you CAN'T:

- Ask pointed or accusatory questions
- Seek consent to search
- Detain the person, block his path or use or threaten to use force
- Direct the person to stop

At Level 1...

Does the person have to stay and answer questions?

I'm in pursuit on suspicion of....?

PROCEDURE NUMBER:	DATE EFFECTIVE:	REVISION NUMBER:	PAGE:
212-11	10/05/15		6 of 12

Protective measures: Even if an officer does not have reasonable suspicion that a person is armed and dangerous, there are tactics for officer safety that an officer may use short of a frisk when the officer perceives her/his safety is at risk. These include ordering the individual to take her/his hands out of her/his pockets, put down or step away from an otherwise lawful object that could be used as a weapon, grabbing the person's hands if the circumstances suggest the person may be grabbing a weapon, or forcibly removing the person's hands from her/his pockets if the individual refuses to remove them from her/his pockets. Any lawfully possessed article that is removed/safeguarded by a member of the service during an investigative encounter should be returned to the individual at the conclusion of the encounter (unless probable cause is developed and the individual is arrested).

Protective Measures

What you can say:

- "Show me your hands"
- "Put that down"
- "Take your hands out of your pockets"
- "Raise your hands"

What you can do:

- You can forcibly remove the person's hands from their pockets, if they refuse to show them
- You can grab the person's hands, if they reach for their pocket or waisthand
